

Professor Hugh White talks about Nuclear Threat in Asia

Professor Hugh White, Head of the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre at ANU and a Visiting Fellow at the Lowy Institute of International Policy.

Professor White is an experienced commentator in Australia on pressing security and strategic issues in Asia. He provided insights into the recent North Korean test missiles on The 7.30 Report and published "Don't Mention the Bomb" on The Age regarding Australia's nuclear future.

Asialink features Professor Hugh White as inaugural keynote speaker for 5 minutes to Midnight lecture series on the Doomsday Clock Theory with a focus on contemporary Asia, as we explore subjects of nuclear threat, terrorism, climate change and public health.

Professor White is available for media interviews before this event.
